*Diversification does not ensure a profit or guarantee against a loss.¹30-Day SEC Yield is a standard yield calculation developed by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) that facilitates fairer comparisons of funds. The figure reflects dividends and interest earned by the securities held by the fund during the most recent 30-day period, net of fund's expenses. ²12-Month Yield represents the sum of the fund's dividends for the last 12 months divided by the sum of the last month's NAV and any capital gain distributions made over the past 12 months. ³Holdings are subject to change. ⁴Sum of weightings may not equal 100% due to rounding.

Investments in nanotechnology are subject to risks associated with a developing industry as well as changing technology and there is no guarantee that these companies will be successful. A more complete discussion of risks is found in the prospectus. The index theme may not be the primary driver of company, index or fund performance. Companies in the index may have significant unrelated business lines, which could have a significant negative impact on company, index and fund performance. Investments in non-U.S. securities may involve risks different from U.S. securities, including risks from geographic concentration, differences in valuation and valuation times, unfavorable fluctuations in currency, differences in generally accepted accounting principles, and from economic or political instability. Investments in emerging markets generally are less liquid, more volatile, and riskier than investments in more developed markets and are considered to be speculative. This fund is non-diversified and concentrates its investments in certain sectors. Non-diversified and narrowly focused investments typically exhibit higher volatility.

Shares of any ETF are generally bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the fund. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns. ProShares are distributed by SEI Investments Distribution Co., which is not affiliated with the fund's advisor.
